PILGRIMAGE TO OXFORD CATHEDRAL

Rod Cosh is looking for pilgrims to accompany him on the St. Frideswide Pilgrimage. They will follow the Thames Path up to Dorchester where they will join other pilgrims and continue together to Christchurch Cathedral. At least it's flat but you will need to be a reasonably fit and experienced walker. There will be a send-off service with Bishop Alan at St. Andrew's on Sunday 13th October at 11.00 am. Please contact the Vicar if you are interested in taking part.

Don't know who St Frideswide is? She's the patron saint of our Diocese and dedicatee of Oxford Cathedral.

ST. JOHN'S - GWELUTSHENA UPDATE

Greetings, Last rainy season we purchased and distributed sugar beans and sorghum, whose harvest was very poor due to low rainfall. Seasonal in-kind food assistance is much needed to spur a sustained recovery, build resilience, and close the seasonal food gap. The Diocese is also embarking on a building project within the Church premises. The money you recently sent will be used for the construction of the much needed Guest house. Thank you for your continued support and prayers.

Kind Regards, Doreen

A MEETING IN THE AIR

'Then the rest of us...will be caught up with them into the clouds to meet the Master.' 1 Thessalonians 4:17 (MSG)

THE MESSAGE paraphrases Christ's return this way: 'The Master Himself will give the command. Archangel thunder! God's trumpet blast! He'll come down from heaven and the dead in Christ will rise - they'll go first. Then the rest of us who are still alive at the time will be caught up with them into the clouds to meet the Master... then there will be one huge family reunion.... So reassure one another with these words' (vv. 16-18 MSG). The second coming of Christ will be inaugurated by the trumpet blast of the archangel. Cemeteries and seas will give up their dead. 'Christ... will appear a second time... to save those who are eagerly waiting for him' (Hebrews 9:28 ESV). The event will be witnessed by all humanity. 'Every eye shall see him' (Revelation 1:7 KJV). From Adam to the baby born as the trumpet sounds, every one of us will witness the moment. But not everyone will welcome it. 'Unready people all over the world... will raise a huge lament as they watch the Son of Man blazing out of heaven' (Matthew 24:30 MSG). You don't go to heaven by chance, you go by choice. And God will honour your choice. Those who acknowledge Christ as their Saviour will arise to celebrate the greatest family reunion of all time. Are you going to heaven? If you're not sure, don't let this day end until you put your trust in Christ and accept Him as your Lord and Saviour.

Pray for those who haven't yet put their trust in Christ.
